

Visiting Scholar Program Application

The Young Oak Kim Center for Korean American Studies is dedicated to understanding what it means to be a Korean American in the 21st century, the history of Korean Americans, the Korean diaspora in the United States and globally, and the role of Korean Americans in the reunification of South and North Korea.

The Center is also studying the impact of the 1992 Los Angeles Riots on the Korean American identity. Through cultural and academic study, the center aims to empower the Korean American community and bridge ethnic and generational gaps.

To help achieve the Center's goal, we facilitate a Visiting Scholar Program. Through the program, the Center hopes to collaborate with individuals who seek to understand Korean diaspora, Korean Americans, Koreans and the reunification of North and South Korea and other issues related to ethnic studies.
